

Choice making games

Choice Making

Offer your child choices throughout the day. Present two objects at eye level and ask what item your child would like e.g “apple or orange?”.

You will help your child learn new words and express themselves by making a choice by reaching for, pointing to or saying the preferred item.

